

Please read the statements below carefully, if you do not agree to any of the statements please let us know so we can honour your wishes.

1. Bethlehem College, Ashfield Ex Students (herein known as Ex Students) collects personal information from exstudents after they leave Bethlehem College, Ashfield (herein known as College). The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the Ex Students and the College to maintain an accurate data base and record of our exstudents and allows for communication with the College's ex student community.
2. Personal information is collected from existing ex students such as contact information, professional information as well as information pertinent to their school years at the College. This information as well as general news provided by and individual about life and achievements may be used in College publications including newsletters, magazines and on our website.
3. From time to time we may take photographs at Ex Student functions of members of the ex student community to be used in marketing material and in College newsletters, magazines and on our website. If you do not agree to this you must advise us now.
4. Ex students may seek access to personal information collected about them by contacting the College. However there will be occasions where other ex students have provided information in confidence.
5. As you may know the College from time to time engages in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the College's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. WE will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
6. We may include your contact details in a class list and Ex Student directory. If you do not agree to this you must advise us now.
